OVERLAND ROUTE via TRIESTE.

(In direct communication with the P. and O. Co.'s Steamers to Suez.)

THE AUSTRIAN LLOYD'S MAIL STEAMERS leave Alexandria direct for Trieste weekly, immediately after the arrival of the Bombay and Calcutta Mails and Passengers from Suez. The distance between Alexandria and Trieste is 200 miles shorter than that between Alexandria and Marseilles and is much more agreeable, it being a coasting trip full of variety of beautiful scenery from the Island of Candia to the port of Trieste. The passage occupies only 4¼ to 5 days and the Company employ on this line their best Steamers, built expressly for this service, and with special reference to the accommodation and comfort of Passengers, with an experienced Surgeon on board each vessel. At Trieste the traveller to England has an extensive choice of picturesque and interesting routes, occupying from 3 days 6 hours to 5 days to London at an expense varying from £7 to £13.

The railway between Trieste, Calais and Ostend, is complete throughout.

The Custom-house and Pass-port systems have been considerably modified and need not cause any apprehension of being vexatious or troublesome.

Passengers by the P. and O. Company's Steamers to Suez can have their baggage forwarded by that Company's Steamers to Southampton at a charge of 10s. per cwt., to which the Austrian Lloyd's Agent at Suez will attend.

The undersigned Agents are prepared to grant passage tickets for the Steamers plying between Alexandria and Trieste and for the railway between Suez and Alexandria.

Rates of passage money, including a liberal table and steward's fees from Alexandria to Trieste, first-class £16; second-class £11; children under 10 years at half fare; under 2 years free. Railway tickets from Suez to Alexandria with all the privileges of the steamers of the P. O. Co. first-class £7, second-class £3 10s.; children over 3 and under 10 years at half fare. For further particulars, apply to A. H. HUSCHKE & Co., Agents for the Austrian Lloyd.

Bombay, 27, Medow Street.

NOTICE.

Travellers by the Overland route via Trieste can have their Pass-ports viséd for Austria and Prussia by the undersigned.

A. C. GUMPERT,

THE BOMBAY MISCELLANY.—Messrs. Chesson & Woodhall, Bombay.—A copy of a magazine bearing the above title lies before us, and we are glad to notice the book as a praiseworthy attempt on the part of its spirited publishers to establish a work in India in which the literary contributions of Europeans in our Eastern dependency may be brought before the world. Much information of a valuable nature relating to India may be collected through the agency of a work such as this—information that might otherwise be lost as few Europeans in the East have leisure for the production of books, and are out of the way of communicating with magazines at home. This Miscellany ought especially to recommend itself to the many "old Indians" scattered throughout Britain, for in addition to tales and sketches illustrative of Indian life, we observe that the work contains a well-written monthly summary or retrospect of Indian affairs, and articles giving every information on military matters in India will also be found in its pages. The work is not quite a new one, for we notice that it has stood its ground for more than two years, and from its contents we are inclined to augur favourably of an advance in the literary tastes of our countrymen in the East. It is well got up, and reflects great credit upon the Bombay firm from whose press it is issued.—Inverness Advertiser.

THIS is an Indian monthly which combines in an agreeable manner the functions of a magazine and a newspaper. It has stories, tales, sketches of a fictional nature, with essays of a graver cast, with a London letter summarising in business like style the monthly chit-chat about politics and literature in the great metropolis. The feature, however, that is likely to prove most interesting to English readers is the retrospect of Indian news, which appears to be carefully done. For "Old Indians" who wish to keep themselves au con ant with all of importance going on in the country in which they spent their youth and manhood and, at the same time, to avoid the expense and trouble involved in wading through files of Indian papers, this "Miscellany" seems very well adapted.—Scotsman.

The "Cornhill" and the "Temple Bars" must not be supposed to have the whole field to themselves in our Colonies and dependencies. There lies before us a number of a magazine bearing the above title, and which we observe has reached its fifth volume. It is all or nearly all written in India, and printed and issued by its spirited proprietors in Bombay. The tales and sketches are, for the most part, illustrative of life in India, and the magazine forms an excellent vehicle for the contributions of English writers in our Eastern dependency, where most Europeans are too deeply absorbed in the cultivation of the "Pagoda Tree" to find much leisure for literature; and among whom it is, therefore, all the more needful to give every encouragement to a little distraction from merely "material pursuits." "Old Indian"—and there are many of the class in our neighbourhood—will find this work to possess considerable interest for them, as we note that there is an admirably written monthly summary of Indian events. Every information relative to military movements is also given; and any one taking an interest in the "Turf" in India will find, in the Racing Calendar of each month, all the information they may desire. For the better enlightenment of exiles in India itself, a monthly article of European politics and literature is transmitted from London. Altogether, the work does much credit to its publishers, and is very deserving of public patronage.—Brighton Examiner.

A NEW WORK.

LIGHTS AND SHADES OF THE EAST.
DEDICATED TO THE HONORABLE SIR BARTLE FRERE, K.C.B., GOVERNOR OF BOMBAY.

LIGHTS AND SHADES OF THE EAST, by LI FRAMJEE BOMANJEE (late of the E. College):—

This Work, to be nearly of the size of Dr. Russell's "Diary in India," 400 pages or upwards, 8vo. and nearly cloth-bound, is now being printed at the Alliance Press, Bombay, and will be out about the close of next month. The MS. has been looked over, with a view to judge of its merits, by more than one well-known English scholar, and been pronounced as the result of "a great deal of thought," &c. It is an earnest exposition of the Native character in its social, moral, and intellectual aspects, which as yet has been felt a desideratum, and in which, while treating of the feil and career of BABOO HARRICHUNDER, the late Editor of the Hindoo Patriot—to whose memory Natives of all parts of India, and even Englishmen of rank and position at Calcutta, have resolved on erecting a monument, the Author analyses the sources of his success, traces how far these are wanting among the majority of the rising generation of India, and points out how the character of the young Indian Student may be completely formed and ameliorated. He next discusses the best means of regenerating the mass of the people; and then passes to a dissertation on "Civilisation," with a view to show that the future Civilisation of the World will take its rise from Indian soil.

With a view to give the most general idea of the Work, the principal heads of the contents are published and may be seen at any of our Libraries.

The price of each copy of the book will be either Four or Five Rupees.

Subscribers names will be entered at either Messrs. CHESSON & WOODHALL'S Fort, or ARDASEER SAGOOR & Co.'s has brought so much discredit on all who have had to do with it officially. For its own credit it ought to make public an "unvarnished tale" of the actual state of the works, and what prospects there are of their being brought speedily to a close. Till this is done there will be no end to the misstatements, recriminations and heart burnings which the Sedashewghur pier scheme has already engendered.

THE Chartered Mercantile Bank of India, London, and China has declared a Dividend at the rate of ten per cent per annum, (free of Income Tax) for the half year ending 31st December last.

THE Right Revd. the Bishop of Bombay accompanied by his lady paid a visit on the 13th instant to the Indo-British Institution. The Bishop was received by the indefatigable superintendent (the Revd. C. D. Du Port). His Lordship walked round the School-room and personally inspected the children ; and was pleased with their cheerful appearance.

After having addressed a few words to Mr. Prescott, the Bishop and those present, with the children, sung a Hymn ; and after prayer by the Bishop, the senior classes of the boys and girls were examined in scripture, Reading, Geography, History of England and Arithmetic. The Bishop was pleased to notice that he was thoroughly satisfied with the answers of the children and that the present visit had given him great pleasure. He was sorry that time did not permit him to remain longer.

As this was a private visit and inspection, besides the Revd. C. D. Du Port and Mrs. Du Port none of the friends of the Institution were present. There are at the present moment 54 boys and 46 girls in the Institution. We are glad to learn that the present Superintendent and his lady take a warm interest in the Institution and seem in all points to be following in the steps of that excellent man the Revd. G. Candy who was the founder of the Institution. Funds are wanting and we trust that all who can will contribute towards the support of these orphan children.

THE PROPOSED PUBLIC CONVEYANCES BILL.—The Select Committee have made their report upon the Bill for the Regulation of Public Conveyances in Bombay, making several alterations in it. They have divided the Public conveyances into two heads ; viz, Public Land Conveyance, and Public Water Conveyance ; the former they have placed under the Commissioner of Police, and the latter under the Master Attendant, it appearing unwise to give the Commissioner of Police, who may have no knowledge of the harbour or shipping, control over the boats in the harbour. The Bill contains thirty-six sections, the effect of which is as follows :—No person to use or let for hire any unlicensed Conveyance. License shall contain certain particulars. Notice to be given of change of residence. Commissioner of Police and Master Attendant may grant licenses for Public Conveyances. A fee shall be levied in accordance with the class of license granted. Licenses shall be renewed annually. Commissioner of Police or Master Attendant has power to suspend or revoke licenses. Suspended or revoked licenses to be returned to the Commissioner or Master Attendant. Supplementary licenses may be issued. Licenses not transferable without sanction of Commissioner or Master Attendant endorsed thereon. Registers to be kept by the Commissioner and Master Attendant. Fares and stands for public conveyances to be fixed and appointed by the Commissioner, subject to the approval of the Governor in Council. License not to carry passengers in excess of number licensed to carry. For concealing number or preventing any person taking note thereof, the penalty is a fine of Rs. 20 or in default either simple or rigorous imprisonment for a period not exceeding two months. Persons not to be permitted to ride in public conveyance without the consent of the hirers. Drivers, &c., always to have with them a list of fares, &c. Lists of the rates and fares, &c., to be prepared and published in the offices of the Commissioner and Master Attendant. Drivers, &c., always to be sober, clean, and respectful, and to keep their conveyances clean. A penalty of Rs. 20 or in default two months' imprisonment for refusing fare, loitering, demanding more than legal fare and plying for hire off the public stands. In case of hurt or damage, negligently or wilfully occasioned by driver, &c., Magistrate may award punishment. In cases of disputes driver, &c. may be required to proceed to a Police Court, or to nearest European Police Officer. Police Officer may require a public conveyance to ply for hire. Persons refusing to pay legal fare may be fined and compelled to compensate driver, &c. for his loss of time. Magistrate may award compensation to driver in case of groundless complaint. Property left in a public conveyance to be deposited and restored to the owner. Police Constable may arrest without warrant, any person offending in his view, and may search and detain public conveyance when necessary to do so. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the 1st day of July 1863.

CORONER'S INQUESTS.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH.—An Inquest was held on Friday last, at Tardeo, touching the death of one Auvdi, a Hindoo girl of the age of about seven years. From the evidence of the father of the deceased girl, taken before the Coroner, Dr. Reid, it appeared that on Friday the sixth instant, at about four o'clock A. M. he (father of the deceased) got up as usual to prepare his food, he lighted an iron lamp, and after preparing his food left about five o'clock to go to his work, leaving the deceased and his son in the house. At the time he went out he did not extinguish the light but left it burning. About six o'clock A. M. in consequence of information received by him, he went home and observed the deceased suffering from the severe burns she had sustained on her breast and hands. He, the father, asked her how it occurred, deceased stated she got upon the cot to take her bread from the earthen pot which was placed on a board hung to the tattawall, and while in the act of taking out the bread, her Dhotur which she had round her body caught fire from the light that was burning, that immediately she ran to one Esso Soubarao who was then in the adjoining room, and that he poured water over her. The father applied some native medicines but in vain. The deceased died at half-past two on the afternoon of Friday last.

VERDICT.—"The deceased died of injuries sustained by her clothes having accidentally caught fire."

FALL FROM A WINDOW.—Another Inquest was held on the fifteenth instant, at the Jamsetjee Hospital touching the death of a calassie named Ibrahim. At about half-past four A.M., a Police sepoy was standing at the end of Memonwadda, when he observed a man falling out of a window, on the front floor of a house in that street. The peon immediately reported the circumstance to Balajee Sankrajee. The Duffedar stated before the Inquest that in consequence of the information he received he went running, and found the deceased lying breathing heavily and bleeding from the head. The deceased smelt of liquor. Dr. Carter stated that the deceased was admitted into the hospital on the morning of Sunday last. He saw him at half-past seven o'clock when the deceased was in a dying state. There was a large scalp wound near the top of the skull but the bone was not depressed. A considerable quantity of blood was issuing from the left ear. A strong odour of spirits was perceptible from the breath. The deceased died in the afternoon of the fifteenth instant.

VERDICT.—The deceased died of a fracture of the skull, accidentally caused by having fallen from a window while in liquor.

*BOMBAY POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

FORT POLICE OFFICE.—16TH MARCH, 1863.

(BEFORE N. W. OLIVER, ESQ.)

FORGERY.—Fullee Banee, Khadaroo Boomadik, Ruckba Luckajee, Huckma Nanuckjee, Balajee Babooram and Jeeba stand charged with forgery and using as genuine a forged document, were fully committed to the ensuing Criminal Sessions, to take their trial.

ROBBING A PRIEST.—Rutton, a female mendicant, was brought up, charged with robbing a Brahmin priest of Rs. 63 in cash.

The prosecutor stated that, that the money had been taken from his house near the Bazar Gate.

A policeman deposed to his having arrested the woman with the money in her possession.

The case was fully committed to the ensuing Criminal Sessions.

THEFT OF GOVERNMENT NOTES.—Nurotumdass Cassedass was charged with stealing four notes of the Government of India, for one hundred rupees each, the property of Jora Teeja, on Monday last.

Jora Teeja, a pawnbroker, who keeps a shop in New Hummon Lane where he also resided, said he knew the prisoner who had been stopping with him for five or six days. On Sunday night the eighth instant, about ten o'clock he put four Government Currency Notes for one hundred rupees each, in a cash box, in which there were also one hundred and fifty rupees, the box was kept in a cupboard in his shop. About eight o'clock the next morning, while prisoner was sitting in the prosecutor's shop he saw the notes safe in the box with the rupees ; he then went out leaving the prisoner sitting there with his brother, returning about an hour after he found his brother was gone out, and in consequence of information received from Jaira Nursee, he opened the cupboard to look for the notes. The rupees were in the box, but the notes were gone. Prosecutor afterwards found the prisoner in custody of the police, at Mombadavy chowkey. A Policeman had notes in his hand and asked the witness if they were his, which he said they were. Those then in Court he recognized by marks on them. The prisoner at first said he had brought them from Nandgaum and afterwards that he had taken them from the prosecutor's shop.

On examination yesterday, the prosecutor said, I made a mistake last Thursday in my information. I went to the European Constable at Funnuswady and he asked me how many notes I had lost. I told him "four for one hundred rupees each," he asked me if I knew their numbers, I said I did not recollect them ; he then shewed me the notes, but not plainly. I claimed them as mine. I went to Mombadavy Police chowkey after I had been to Mr. Burrett's, but I did not see the notes in the policeman's hands as I before stated, nor did I claim them there, nor did the policeman ask me if they were mine. After going to Mr. Forjett, I went to Mr. Mahan with the prisoner and policeman, who gave the notes to Mr. Mahan and told him the notes had been stolen from me ; Mr. Mahan asked me if I knew the numbers of the notes, I said "no"—I saw them from a distance in his hands, and as I had lost some I claimed them.

Veerchund Tejia the brother of the prosecutor said, that about half an hour after his brother had gone out, the prisoner went to him in the cook-room, and said he was going out. Witness told him to go, but soon after having to go to the box where the notes had been, found them gone. Following the prisoner immediately he came up with him, when the notes were found by the police in his waist-cloth.

Abdoolkhan Ahmedkhan, a police sepoy, corroborated the last part of the latter witness' statement.

The prisoner said he did not know what the paper was, but found it lying on a cushion and had picked it up promiscuously. When charged with the theft he said he had brought the paper from Nandgaum.

The Magistrate fully committed the prisoner for trial at the ensuing Criminal Sessions at the High Court.

OFFICIAL PAPERS.

PAGE, THE DESERTER.—An Extract of the Report which appeared in the Times of India of the 27th of January last, having been forwarded by Government to the Magistrate at Poona, for report, the following reply has been received :—

No. 183 OF 1863.

Poona Magistrate's Office, 30th January 1863.

To the CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT, JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,—In reply to your letter, No. 93, dated the 27th instant, I have the honor to report, that I think there must be a mistake either in the newspaper report or in Mr. Barton's instructions, as no such case as the one described has occurred within my jurisdiction.

Two or three months ago, an Englishman, whose name I cannot recollect, complained to me that he had been arrested at the Cape on suspicion of being a deserter, brought to Bombay and kept in confinement there and at Poona for several months, and finally released by the Military Authorities here, without either trial or other satisfaction ; but whether his story was true or not I cannot say, and I mention it merely because it may probably have some connection with Mr. Barton's application. I have the honor, &c.,

ALEXANDER GRAY, Acting Magistrate.

The following day, the Acting Magistrate of Poona addressed another letter to the Chief Secretary to Government, forwarding a copy of the Poona Observer in which an article appears on the Court Martial of a man named James Reilly H. M.'s 103rd Royal Fusiliers who was brought to trial before an European District Court Martial at Poona, upon charges of "Disobedience of Orders," and "Insubordination." This man denied being a soldier, and consequently the authority of the Court Martial to try him. The Acting Magistrate of Poona considered the case of this man identical with that of Page.

The same day a Circular was forwarded to the 4th Brigade R. H. A., 103rd Royal Bombay Fusiliers, and the other Corps at Poona, requesting to know if any man of the name of Page had ever been tried by Court Martial, and, if so, whether he was still undergoing imprisonment. The replies were in the negative.

The following is the report of the Commissioner of Police :—

To the CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT.

Bombay, 2nd March 1863.

SIR,—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 216, dated 28th ultimo, requesting to be informed whether there are any grounds for Mr. Barton's assertion before the Acting Senior Magistrate, that a European had been seized near the Dhobee Talao, and sent up-country, and to state in reply, that a man was so arrested under the following circumstances :—

About eleven months ago, Constable John Bell, who was in charge of the Dhobee Talao Section of the Native Town, was called to a Tavern kept by one Byramjee Dadabhoy, in Chundun Waddy, and was told by two European seamen, who were lodging there, that a man named Page, then present, had asked them to take him to some one to whom he could surrender himself as a deserter. Page hearing this statement at once confirmed it, and surrendered himself, as a deserter from the 1st Regiment Bengal Cavalry, Constable Bell then brought him to my office, and in his presence stated to me the circumstances of his arrest, the truth of which Page, tacitly assented to. I therefore directed Constable Bell to convey him to the Brigade Major, and report the case to him. This he did and received from that Officer a note which, with the prisoner, he made over to the Adjutant of H. M.'s 33rd Regiment, from whom he received a receipt for the body of the prisoner, and subsequently obtained the reward of twenty rupees for his arrest.

I have since heard that Page was sent to Poona by the Military Authorities and was kept in custody, pending the result of a reference to Bengal ; that it was subsequently ascertained that he had been regularly discharged and that he was therefore set at liberty.

Constable Bell's statement is, I beg to state, corroborated by one of the seamen above alluded to, who is now in Bombay, and who, with the Constable, a few days ago deposed to the effect above stated before the Attorney for Paupers.—I have the honor to be, &c.

C. FORJETT, Commissioner of Police.

INSOLVENT DEBTORS' COURT.

Monday, 16*th March* 1863.

(BEFORE THE HON'BLE COMMISSIONER, MR. JUSTICE COUCH.)

In re Peerbhoy Rowjee.

THIS case had stood over from last Court day for the purpose of enabling the insolvent to amend the schedule as directed by the Court.

Mr. Scoble, on behalf of the insolvent, stated that his client was unable to make the requisite amendment, having not left his residence, owing to a writ of ca-sa being out against him ; and he therefore applied for an interim order and a month's time to enable him to comply with the Court's order.

Mr. Bayley, who represented the opposing creditors, said he had no objection either to the interim order or to the postponement being granted to the insolvent ; but as he was brought to the Court upon notice of motion given by the insolvent he asked that the costs of the day should be paid by insolvent to the opposing creditors.

Mr. Scoble hereupon offered to pay the costs.

The Hon'ble Commissioner then adjourned the hearing for a month, and granted an interim order to the insolvent.

In re Captain Thomas Smales.

Mr. Scoble, instructed by Mr. Leggett, on behalf of the insolvent, applied for liberty to withdraw the petition with respect to the creditors named in the schedule, and for four months' time for the purpose of giving notice of the same to the creditors both here and in England.

The Hon'ble Commissioner granted the order that the hearing be adjourned for four months from this date with liberty to the insolvent to withdraw his petition with respect to the creditors named in the schedule.

HIGH COURT.—ORIGINAL JURISDICTION.

Saturday, 14*th March* 1863.

(BEFORE SIR M. SAUSSE, C. J. AND SIR J. ARNOULD.)

Mahomed Yoosoof Moorgay, Cazee of Bombay vs. Syed Ahmed Cashmeree and others.

Mr. Westropp and Mr. White, instructed by Dr. Dalias, for plaintiff.

Mr. Lowis (Advocate General) and Mr. Bayley, instructed by Mr. Cumroodeen, for defendants.

The plaintiff is the recognised Mahomedan Cazee of Bombay, and the first defendant is the person who had lately set himself up as the Cazee but was compelled to desist by an injunction order of this Court ; and the other defendants are his adherents. Mr. Westropp moved for an attachment against the defendants for breach of the injunction order, they having, despite the support of Government and the judgment and the injunction order of the late Supreme Court establishing plaintiff's rights, continued to violate his rights, and by an active conspiracy to have the marriages of all the poorer Mahomedans performed and registered by their nominees, who receive the fees, keep a regular account, and pay them according to the orders of the defendants. Several affidavits were filed by the plaintiff to prove the breach of the injunction order and they disclosed how difficult it was to bring home the charge to the principal defendants, and how useless even a decree for perpetual injunction would be to the plaintiff. The plan adopted was this. As soon as a Naib or person performing or recording marriages is made a party to the suit, he ceases to do so, and another person is appointed in his place. It is comparatively easy to discover that a Naib is performing a marriage, but it is almost impossible to get direct evidence, in fact strictly speaking, any evidence, of his appointment by the leading men of the Jamat. There was one case of direct interference with the plaintiff's rights by the defendants alleged to be made by the affidavits of Futtay Mahomed, Mahomed Hyat, and Jooma Ismail. It was stated that the defendants requested Mahomed Hyat to get the marriage certificate of his daughter performed by the new Cazee's man, threatened him if he did not do so, and succeeded in inducing him to comply. Then there is the fact of the marriage certificate being given and marriage performed by Syed Sha Meeya and fee paid. The affidavit of Syed Abdoola charged the defendants generally with violation of the injunction, and stated that he had seen several marriages performed by Syed Meeya and, as to his information and belief, that the Naib was appointed by the Jamat ; he said that of the two Naibs who were acting, when the bill was filed, one ceased to act when served with subpœnas, the other acted till injunction when he absconded ; that plaintiff made out the names of their successors and made them parties, then they ceased to act, and that Syed Sha Meeya was then appointed by the defendants and has since continued to celebrate and record marriages. The affidavits of Goolam Ali Maharee and Syed Goolam Ali, former Naibs, deposed for a period anterior to injunction of the marriages being regularly recorded and accounts kept and rendered to these defendants, and portion of the fees paid to them. The affidavits of a Police Havildar and a Naik depose to a marriage having been performed on the 25th June last by Mahomed Hoosein Purkar, who stated that he was authorised to do so by the defendants Meeya Furzundar and Mahomed Ismail.

The affidavits of the defendants in reply deny the complicity of the defendants in these appointments, or that any authority proceeded from them. The affidavit of the six defendants, the Jamat, goes verbally through the affidavits on behalf of plaintiff and negatives the averments. In addition to the general denial, Mahomed Ismail set up an alibi as to the occurrence deposed to have taken place on the 15th September as to Mahomed Hyat's daughter : his alibi was corroborated by his physician, his nephew, and his gardener. To meet this alibi produced an affidavit by a potter to whom he was indebted and whom he brought into the Fort on the 15th September to receive a transfer. Another affidavit by the defendants, denied the statements of the former Naib, Goolam, Maharee, as to his having given accounts to Goolam Ahmed Rogay.

THE CHIEF JUSTICE, after hearing the affidavits read and the oral testimony of some of the deponents, said that the marriages alleged to have been celebrated by the defendants took place prior to the injunction order, and were, therefore, out of the question. The whole of the case was consequently restricted to a conversation which took place between the three defendants and Mahomed Hyat as to the marriage of the daughter of the latter. On sifting the whole of the evidence, the Court did not think the plaintiff had succeeded in establishing a breach of the injunction order, although that the defendants in denying the charges had made some very reckless statements. Motion refused without costs.

BENGAL.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF BENGAL.

(From the Supplement to the Englishman's Weekly Journal, March 7.)

THE Legislative Council of Bengal met this morning at the usual hour. Present ; His Honor the Lieut.-Governor presiding, the Advocate General, the Hon'ble Ashley Eden, Messrs. Lushington, Allen, Peterson, Maitland, Moran, Baboo Prosonocomar Tagore and Moolvie Abdool Luteef.

THE HONORABLE ASHLEY EDEN moved that the Bill to create a Municipal Corporation, and to provide for the Conservancy and Improvement of the Town of Calcutta, be read in Council, and explained the objects of the Bill, stating that he did not doubt but that an opposition might be raised regarding its financial arrangements, since he knew that ten per cent. had been considered necessary, but he must remind the members that this was the maximum rate, and that in some parts of the world to which he could refer 50 per cent was levied. The machinery for levying the house tax had been arranged in such manner, as to prevent additional expense ; in 1857 collections under a similar head amounted to one-third of Revenue. There existed some doubt as to the holding of the property on the banks of the Hooghly, and whether it could be dealt with by the Municipality ; he had no doubt as to its being in trust, held for general purposes, connected with the city of Calcutta.

MR. PETERSON rose, and in an able speech of fifty minutes duration, showed that the details of the present Bill had been the subject of his attention. He was astonished to learn that any question was now raised as to the title to the property alluded to in the Bill. Generally he approved of the Bill and therefore took the earliest opportunity of pointing out where in he considered it required alteration. He had understood that the principal of self-government had been admitted, but he found that selection by Government had priority, and if such was to be the basis, it was his opinion that an extention of the class from which Justices of the Peace are selected should be made simultaneously. In addition to the Ex-officio members greater room should be made for those representing the trading classes of Calcutta ; that interest was at present alone represented by Messrs. Jennings and Spink, but his belief was that an extension in the same direction would result most beneficially. Regarding the clauses of the Bill, he objected to the Government nominating the Chairman. He knew from enquiry that a great diversity of opinion existed out of doors : some people going to the extent of believing, that if they were appointed in the manner defined by the act, the Justices would be mere puppets while the Chairman really ruled the affairs. He thought it deserved the most serious consideration, and suggested the advisability of the appointment resting with the Justices, subject to Government approval. He considered it essentially necessary that power should rest with the Justices, for they alone would in practice be amenable to public opinion, and any pressure from out of doors would be brought to bear on them.

The Hon'ble Member took objection to the proposed arrangements regarding the Police. If it was competent for the Commissioner of Police to become the Chairman and was able to discharge properly the duties, which would be incumbent under the measure, as proposed, the office of vice president must have been a farce ; but his (Mr. Peterson's) opinion was that if the duties were properly attended to the Commissioner had plenty to do, more especially, when he remembered, that not long since the radius of his duties was extended beyond the Mahratta ditch, and now embraced some 13 miles. He had to tell them that a very general opinion prevailed outside that Council, that Mr. Wauchope was to be Chairman, so much was it believed that he himself had been asked to intercede with that gentleman, for the obtaining an appointment under the proposed board.

The Hon'ble Member was suspicious as to the intention of Government in framing the Bill ; he thought he detected a mode of paying certain salaries by 8 annas out of one pocket and 8 annas out of another. So far as the general principles of the Bill they would receive his support ; the thoughtful mode of meeting and voting unobjectionable. He was glad to see the assessment of land provided for, but it did not appear to him that it was politic to tax empty houses by half rates, which, according to the estimate, would reduce 12 months rental value, to that of 10 months real value. In going through the list he objected to the division as in the bill, of obligatory or non-obligatory works, as well as the rendering the new board bound to proceed with any undertaking which had been entered upon ; it ought to be competent and free to judge regarding such. The fines under the Act were excessive. Magistrates, being only men, should be limited when dealing with a people receiving a few annas per day instead of, as in England shillings, and as summary jurisdiction being vested in the police as this Bill proposed, he should oppose it entirely in every clause wherein it appeared. The police had quite power enough in being authorised to investigate the question of taxes paid by a search of premises. These should be dealt with under summonses before the magistrate. We regret that our space will not enable us to summarise even thus briefly the Hon'ble Member's remarks as to the tenure on which the property on the banks of the river is held or regarding the supply of water. We may just mention with regard to the former, while not wishing to excite public opinion, he trusted the rate payers would come forward in such a manner as to cause the Government to hesitate ere they dealt with this trust property as its own.

After few remarks from other members,

THE HON'BLE A. EDEN rose to reply, expressing the belief that the public had greater security in the selection of a suitable man as Chairman if left to Government with its wide field, than if chosen by the votes of the Justices. As to Mr. Peterson's remarks about the Commissioner of the Police, the clause had been inserted with reference to Justices of the Peace, and no wish on the subject, and he should not therefore oppose the striking out of the Section. He acknowledged that the division as to what was or was not obligator was excessively fanciful, but he taunted Mr. Peterson with its having been made by his advice and selection (against which Mr. Peterson dissented.) As to the objections out of doors that the Justices' interest would be to save the ratepayers at the expense of the commerce of Calcutta, he would remind them that if the Wharves were to be under the control of the Municipality the rates were to be fixed by His Honor the Lieut. Governor. The Hon. gentleman then gave a detailed description referring to certain Acts of the East India Company in 1793, 1804, 1809, and 1824, having reference to the tenure under which the banks of the Hooghly formerly belonging to the Lottery Commission and now dealt with by this Bill, have from the abolition of the system in 1841 become under the control of government either in trust or in possession with or without a certain lien for borrowed money unrepaid. The Hon'ble gentleman assured the assembly he had no reason to fear trouble from this source, but he had been careful to refer to the differences which might exist on the question at the first stage in which the measure was presented to the notice of the members. He urged the advisability of the measure.

The Advocate General, even if out of order, was desirous, without pledging himself to any opinion as to whether the Council could or could not deal with this land, must say it appeared to him that all Zemindaree interests must have ceased to exist by lapse of time, even if the Government could not claim it, as within the tidal limits of the Hoogly.

The Bill was then read, and referred to a Select Committee, composed of the Advocate General, the Hon. Ashley Eden, Messrs. Peterson, Maitland and Moran, and Baboo Prosonocomar Tagore.

The Bill referring to the Transport of Natives to Assam, Cachar and Sylhet was then reconsidered.

Mr. Peterson had no wish to detain the Council, but must congratulate the member on this Bill doing away with all absurd ideas about not attaching penal consequences to breaches of contracts ; this bill did it so far only as employers were concerned, with the employe it was the reverse. It had been suggested the Artificers' Act could be strained to meet this difficulty as well as others, but he should be sorry to see the attempt made.

The Hon'ble A. Eden desired to call Mr. Peterson's attention to Clause No. 482 of the Penal Code.

The Hon'ble the Chairman explained that he thought that under different circumstances might exist regarding the question of contract law, this presented a wide difference, as the coolie being employed for a term of years could, if fined or imprisoned any number of times, be again subjected to his engagement till its expiry, whereas the chief difficulty in other cases lay in the defendant seeking the penalty, in preference to the completion of the bargain.

MR. MAITLAND rose to move an amendment to the effect of making this Bill applicable to sea-borne coolies, reiterating his former arguments, and referring to the new petition from the Landholders' Association, whose objections may be thus briefly summed up.

—The Bill interposes difficulties in the way of Indian planters greater than those experienced by the Shipping Agent.

—The unfairness of prescribing the place of landing of the coolies being defined by the government ; further, the Association recomends that the examination of the labourer, be before the Inspector in Calcutta, rather than the Magistrate in the Mofussil.

The Hon. Gentleman argued with ability in favour of his amendment which drew a reply from the Hon. A. Eden deprecating the re-opening of a question already twice discussed. He was at a loss to learn what had occurred since their last meeting to alter the view than adopted, and he could go further than the Hon'ble Chairman did on that occasion by telling them that a Bill was already drafted in redemption of the promises made, and adopting the system of the Bill before them. A few further observations being offered.

The Lieutenant Governor while opposing the amendment, desired that it might be clearly understood that he quite agreed with the amendment in the abstract, but that orders having been issued to the Magistrates directing similar precautions to those provided by the Bill, he considered it would be wise not to intefere with the one before them.

The amendment being withdrawn the Clauses were considered.

On the motion of the Advocate General, a new section was inserted after Section II. providing that in Calcutta the examination should be conducted by the Superintendent, instead of the Magistrate, as such a mode would be more convenient.

After a few more unimportant amendments the Bill was passed and the Council adjourned till Saturday the 21st March.

MADRAS.

THE steamer Australian with transportship Sesostris in tow arrived in the roads yesterday forenoon from Bombay, with H. M.'s 9th Regiment M. N. I. on board, bound for Rangoon. The Australian has brought round a large quantity of treasure for Calcutta, which she is discharging here and will proceed on her voyage to Rangoon this evening.—Times, March 11.

MAURITIUS.

PORT LOUIS, 5*th February* 1863.

THREE days after the departure of our last Mail a melancholy event occurred which spread gloom and sorrow throughout all classes of the community. Sir Wm. Stevenson our able and respected Governor was taken ill on Sunday the 4th January. He was attacked with dysentery which very shortly assumed a serious character ; on the 7th the disease became dangerous and on the night of the 9th the best of Governors breathed his last. As the public generally had not been informed of his illness the sudden announcement of the sad intelligence caused a most painful impression. It was only a few weeks ago that Sir W. and Lady Stevenson received congratulations on the birth of a son. Since then he had appeared several times in public and until a few days before his death had transacted business as usual. How generally and how sincerely he was regretted, how he was esteemed and his high qualities and remarkable talents were appreciated will be best learnt by the resolutions and addresses of all the public bodies in the colony which will be found in another page. Legislative Council, Chambers of Commerce and Agriculture, Municipal Council, Society of Arts and Sciences Metorological Society have all done justice to his merits, as an able and enlightened Governor, as the supporter of Commerce and Agriculture, the promoter of Science, the benevolent protector of the lower classes and the warm advocate of their moral advancement.

In private life by his amiable manners and kind disposition he secured the warm attachment and affection of all around him. Such was Sir W. Stevenson as a Governor and a man. It has naturally devolved on one who has most capable of judging, to speak of him as a Christian. The modest and unassuming eloquence of the Bishop of Mauritius told us from the pulpit what he was in this respect. We refer to the passage of his funeral sermon which will be found in another page. It is there truly said that he ruled with diligence and "fell with his armour on" ; conscious of having done his duty he awaited his last moment with calm composure dying as he had lived, leaving an example worthy to be followed and a name to be long regretted, honored and respected.

The inhabitants of this colony intend to erect a monument to his memory, the expense to be paid by public subscription, and we are satisfied the testimonial will want nothing to make it worthy of the benefactor of the colony.

The officers of the Civil Service have also met to decide on some testimonial to the late Governor to show their gratitude for his constant efforts to improve the condition and the general tone of the service.

As soon as the burial of Sir Wm. Stevenson was completed Major General Johnstone Commander of the Forces took the oath in due form and declared himself Acting Governor by Proclamation. We can say nothing of His Honor's ability in civil matters ; if he is without that aptitude which is required he has competent advisers in the Colonial Secretary and Procureur General, men of colonial experience and eminently qualified for the responsible duties they now fill.

Notwithstanding the suddenness of the death of Sir W. Stevenson the affairs of the Government are in such a state as leave no difficulty to his temporary successor. The financial position of the colony is sound and healthy and although the statement of the Revenue and Expenditure of last year has not been published, we believe the former will be fully equal to the latter. The different questions before the Legislative body are partly solved ; the extension of the time of contracts of service with Immigrants has been prepared by the decisions of the Committee. The Ordinance on River, and Canals has been some time before the Council and can wait the arrival of the new Governor. The expenditure of the present year is amply provided for. The credit of the colony stands high as may be seen from the negociation of the Railway loan in London at 107⅜ for 6 per cent debentures. The whole of the Civil service is now placed on an efficient footing ; our police is well organized and crime less 2000 men lately employed on the works, within the space of a few days 900 were stricken with sickness, several died, and the rest cleared off the work in 48 hours carrying with them reports which deterred the advance of others who were on their way to the ghaut. Under these circumstances, it is very difficult to say when the ghaut will be entirely completed. With this year's experience, which has, however been unprecedently unfavourable, it will be very difficult again to collect workpeople; and in fact, unless the malaria abates to a very material extent, it will be fruitless to do so, for men cannot and will not work when suffering from disease, nor will they consent to remain to die. The completion of the Kyga to the head of the navigation, though desirable, is not essential for the trade provided the other road is available, and no preparations have yet been made by any person to receive cotton at the termination of the former on the bank of the Kala-nuddee. Too much stress has, I think been laid on the Kyga Ghaut approach: owing, I believe, to the discussion about it having arisen before the alternative line was suggested and settled on, the question has not yet been cleared of the consideration that it first involved—namely, that the Kyga was the only approach to Sedashegur. It cannot matter to the houses concerned by what route they get their goods to the place where they require them, provided the one actually available possess no marked disadvantages in respect to any other; and this is clearly the case as regards the Arbyle and Kyga lines. I believe among those who have any local knowledge of the circumstances there is no difference of opinion in the matter. The Arbyle and Ankola line is already opened out to full width to within 14 miles of Beitkul, and a considerable portion of it is well provided with surface and drainage works. Of the incomplete 14 miles nine are out to 12ft. minimum width, and five on level ground have just been commenced. In addition to this there is a branch road on a less convenient line over a high range of hills, which is opened the whole way to a minimum width of 12ft., and by which cart communication with Beitkul is now open throughout. On the Arbyle approach we have a heavy force engaged—two companies of Sappers and Miners, 500 convicts, and 2500 labourers, which will, I trust, now increase day by day, and I think there is every prospect that the road will be ready to full width by March or April next. On the transfer of North Canara to Bombay on the 1st February, 1862, it was determined to abandon, for the present at least, the idea of wharves in the situation selected by Sir W. Denison, and, in place of them, to construct at once a quay or landing place on the eastern shore of Beitkul cove. A plan and estimate for a screw pile pier were called for. A commencement was made during my late visit with the wharf wall, and before I left Sedashegur it had begun to show above low-water mark, and by March next, before it is wanted, I expect that a length of at least 300 feet will be ready for landing and shipping goods. This wharf is being laid in 3f. to 4f. of water at low tide, and will be accessible to cargo-boats except at low water. It was originally intended to erect a pier on the western side of the cove, but it has now been determined by the common consent of the representatives of the mercantile houses and the Government officers to place the pier on the eastern side. However, though it is most desirable to have a pier, one is not immediately and absolutely essential, for when the wharf wall now in progress is ready, goods can be landed and shipped in cargo-boats without difficulty. When the following works are completed, the absolutely essential and immediate requirements of the port will have been supplied:—The Arbyle Ghaut approach; the road from Beitkul to Conay; the wharf wall. It is confidently hoped that they will be finished to a sufficient extent to render them effectual by March or April next, and every possible effort is being made to secure this. The following works, not absolutely essential, but highly desirable, will be completed with as little delay as is practicable, under the peculiar cirumstances of the districts:—The Kyga Ghaut line; the pier; the lighthouse. When all these works shall have been finished, sufficient will probably have been done until the port developes itself more fully and it is ascertained what steps are necessary for improving or preserving the harbour, or to meet the increased requirements of the trade.

He had not the least objection to lay on the table the whole of the correspondence on the subject; and if the noble lord would move for the papers on an early day, they should be granted as an unopposed return.

LIVERPOOL COTTON-MARKET.

(From the Liverpool Albion.)

The sales of cotton for the week, as made up on Thursday evening, amount to 25,680 bales, of which speculators have taken 4,930, exporters 8,900, and spinners 11,850 bales. These transactions are on a moderate scale, especially in regard to the purchases by the trade; and prices in the early part of the period under review gave way ½d. to 1d. per pound, with considerable irregularity from the pressure to sell exhibited by some holders doubtful of coming events. This depression and irregularity continued up to Wednesday, when the Hibernian's advices came to hand, and as these did not show any of that disposition on the part of the North to come to terms with the Confederates which it was partly expected they would, a rapid recovery in prices took place, bringing them on a par yesterday with those of that day week, with the exception of Egyptians, which were still ½d. to ½d. under the earlier quotations.

There is certainly nothing in the Hibernian's accounts to depress cotton, but then it must be remembered that, although the Saxonia's arrival on the 27th of January is announced, her despatches had not had time to produce any result, supposing that she took out the despatch from the French Government to their Minister at Washington, offering friendly suggestions with a view to the suspension of hostilities; for it is to a knowledge of the manner in which those suggestions are received by Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet that an opinion can alone be formed as to immediate cessation or otherwise of the war.

Our import is small during the week, without any check to it from adverse winds keeping out supplies that might be at hand. Two vessels are reported from China with cotton, but with the exception of a few bales from the Shanghai district, it is all East India that has found a better market in its reshipment to this country, instead of entering into consumption in China. The advices from Shanghai continue to the effect that there will be a large quantity of native cotton available for shipment to England, but the term after all is too vague to be reduced to figures, as it is rather measured by a supposition that the available tonnage will not be found sufficient to convey it, than by any defined number of bales; at the same time it is stated that the available tonnage will be the more diminished from the failure of the rice crop, as ships will be in request for the importation of that article into Shanghai.

On Friday 5,000 bales were sold, half on speculation and for export, and on Saturday 6,000, including 2,500 on speculation and for export, with a very firm market, and more disposition to buy shown by the trade.

The following are the comparative prices of the three descriptions of American fair and middling cotton, as quoted yesterday, and at the corresponding period of last year, with the imports and estimated stocks of all descriptions:—

	Feb. 12, 1863. Fair.	Middling.	Feb. 13, 1862. Fair.	Middling.
New Orleans	22d.	21¾d.	13¾d.	12¾d. per lb.
